

PART TWO

THE COSTS OF TOBACCO

“The super-profits of U.S. corporations are being paid for by catastrophic repercussions for the health of the younger generation.”

— Gennadiy Onishchenko, Russia's chief public health officer, who instructed lawyers to explore criminal prosecution of tobacco companies for “nicotine genocide” against the Russian people.